

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Privacy law protections.

This law has improved my time at home. No interruptions at dinner time and not spending my free time talking to people I don't want to.

I would receive two to three a calls a night including week-ends. I now only receive one in a months time